Mountain Park Aquatic Center's lazy river will be speckled with thousands of yellow rubber duckies on Sunday, all flowing down the river in a friendly race to reach the finish basin first.

Spectators can catch the action and cheer for their flock at South Gwinnett Rotary Club's inaugural Gwinnett Duck Derby. The family-friendly event will be from 1 to 4 p.m. and is sponsored by local businesses along with individuals who adopted ducks for $5 a racer.

The first three ducks to finish the race by reaching the catch basin will receive a prize — $2,500 for first place, $1,000 for second place and $500 for third place.

All Duck Derby proceeds will go toward the club's local and international programs for children and youth. Founded in 1982, the Rotary Club of South Gwinnett County is comprised of business owners and community leaders, working annually to raise funds for local organizations such as Lawrenceville Boys & Girls Club, Corley Elementary School and the Brookwood High School Interact Club.
