

"Child Advocacy Center Derby Party Scheduled for May 2

Posted: Thursday, April 23, 2015 8:22 pm

"Ladies and gentlemen grab your Tenn-tucky Derby hats! The 2015 'Duck Season' will kick off with the Derby Party and Auction on May 2 from 2 p.m. until the horses' race," said Queen of the Quackers Coren King.

The party will be held at Sinking Creek Farm, located at 2473 Battleground Drive, Murfreesboro. "Party guests will enjoy a derby style party complete with dancing, h'orderves, and our signature drink, the 'Duck Julep,'" continued King. "At 5:24 p.m., guests will have an opportunity to watch 'the most exciting two minutes in sports', as the Kentucky Derby is shown on the huge projector screen."

The Derby Party will be a quackin' good time and you will have an opportunity to "adopt" ducks for the upcoming May 16th Duck Derby. You can adopt a 6-Quack for $25, a Quacker's Dozen for $50, or a Flock of Ducks for $100. There will be a Duck-tastic Silent Auction and an opportunity to "pick" the winning horse in the Kentucky Derby for a chance to win prizes.

In the last 15 years, the Child Advocacy Center has worked 10,875 child abuse cases, assisted over 15,225 individuals, and trained over 4,750 parents, grandparents, and professionals how to protect children from child sexual abuse.

To become a sponsor, volunteer, adopt ducks, or for more information about the Tenn-tucky Derby Party visit the website at www.boroduckderby.com or contact the "Quack Team" at the Child Advocacy Center at 615-867-9000 or the Cannon County Child Advocacy Center at 615-563-9915.